

Are you a senior in the City of St. John's? Do you have questions about housing options in the city? Do you have future living arrangements made that differ from your current situation?

The Jimmy Pratt Memorial Outreach Centre in collaboration with Happy City St. John's are hosting two informal focus group sessions for those aged 60+ on July 27th and 29th concerning affordable housing options for seniors.

The sessions are intended to raise awareness of the options for seniors and promote discussion on issues surrounding housing in the City of St. John's.

We are asking for your help in circulating this message to those who might be interested in participating. RSVP by clicking the button below to reserve a space to ensure your voice is heard.

For any questions about the event please reply to this message or call Rebecca at 726-8775.
